

XWELL Announces Director Candidate Nomination Notice Submitted by CPC is Invalid

July 22, 2024

Calls on CPC to Update its Deficient 13D Filing to Include Accurate and Transparent Information About its Plan for Obtaining a Majority of the Board and its Recently Filed Litigation

Stockholders Are Not Required to Take Any Action at This Time

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 22, 2024-- XWELL, Inc. (Nasdaq: XWEL) ("XWELL" or the "Company"), an authority in wellness solutions for people on the go, today announced that the notice materials submitted by CPC Pain & Wellness SPV, LLC ("CPC"), which purported to provide notice of CPC's intent to nominate four candidates for election to the Company's five-member Board of Directors (the "Board") at the 2024 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, is invalid.

CPC, a special purpose vehicle that was recently formed by two principals of private equity firm Caydan Capital Partners, LLC, rapidly accumulated a 9.42% equity stake in XWELL last month and subsequently filed a Schedule 13D on June 17th without including specific details pertaining to its plans for the Company. The Company offered CPC opportunities to cure the deficiencies in its purported notice and went out of its way to provide clarity on what information CPC needed to submit to comply with the advance notice provisions of our plainly stated bylaws. Additionally, XWELL entered into a non-disclosure agreement with CPC to initiate discussions about a negotiated resolution that could be in the best interests of all stockholders.

Despite the aforementioned efforts, CPC did not cure the deficiencies in its notice and opted to file litigation against XWELL in an apparent attempt to advance its own objectives. For instance, since receipt of the purported notice, XWELL has had reason to believe that CPC and its private equity partners are seeking to obtain control of a majority of the Board to engineer a transaction involving one of their underperforming affiliates in the pain and wellness space that has not been monetized via a reverse merger or sale (despite many attempts to do so). XWELL maintains that any such 'Take-Under' deal pursued by CPC could:

1. Severely undervalue the Company.
2. Significantly dilute current stockholders.
3. Siphon tremendous value to CPC, as well as its affiliates, at the expense of fellow stockholders, who would be deprived of an adequate control premium.

In violation of XWELL's bylaws, CPC's purported notice is bereft of even a passing reference of its plans. XWELL also maintains that CPC's Schedule 13D disclosure is woefully deficient, representing a violation of the rules and regulations promulgated by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") for such public filings. In particular, CPC appears to have failed to update the filing in a timely manner to account for its plans. XWELL calls on CPC to promptly update its Schedule 13D to transparently inform all of the Company's stockholders and the broader investing public of its plans and related legal action, which XWELL intends to dispute vigorously.

Stockholders are not required to take any action at this time. However, XWELL encourages stockholders to be on alert and question any communications from CPC given the entity's actions to date.
