March 9, 2016

Conversion Features of Debt Removed, Principal Reduced and Term Extended

Richard K. Abbe Joins Board of Directors

NEW YORK - March 9, 2016 - Vringo, Inc. (NASDAQ: VRNG), a diversified technology company, today announced the successful restructuring of all of its existing debt and that Richard K. Abbe will be joining the company's board of directors.

"I am pleased to announce that we have agreed to restructure the existing convertible note with Iroquois Capital Management and that Iroquois' Principal and Managing Partner, Richard Abbe has joined our board of directors," said Andrew Perlman, Chief Executive Officer of Vringo. "Through this restructuring we have removed the convertible feature, meaning there will be no additional dilution of equity, and extended the maturity date through June 2017. This will lower our monthly interest payments which in turn will provide us with enhanced flexibility and we believe remove potential overhang in the stock."

"Rich has been one of our largest and unquestionably our most supportive investor for a number of years. I am excited to have the opportunity to work even more closely with him as he joins our board. I believe he will help to guide and assist management in creating value for our shareholders."

"It's an exciting time to join the Vringo board of directors," said Mr. Abbe. "Having been one of the largest stakeholders in the company since its inception, I have had the opportunity to get to know the company and its management team quite well. I have witnessed first hand their commitment to create value for shareholders and am excited to work alongside them to grow the company and continue to shape its direction."

Mr. Abbe is the Co-founder, and is a Principal and Managing Partner of Iroquois Capital Management, LLC, the Investment Advisor to Iroquois Capital LP and Iroquois Capital (offshore) Ltd. Mr. Abbe has served as Co-Chief Investment Officer of Iroquois Capital since inception in 2003. Previously, Mr. Abbe co-founded and served as Co-Chief Investment Officer of Vertical Ventures, LLC, a merchant bank. Prior to that, he was employed by Lehman Brothers and served as Senior Managing Director at Gruntal & Company, LLC, where he also served on the firm's Board of Directors. Mr. Abbe also previously served as Founding Partner at Hampshire Securities. He currently serves on the investment committee of Hobart and William Smith Colleges endowment Fund.
